

Soci t  Franaise de Bienfaisance et d'Assistance Mutuelle de la Ville de Jefferson Burial Record Transcription

The document below is a translation and transcription of the burial book of Soci t  Franaise de Bienfaisance et d'Assistance Mutuelle de la Ville de Jefferson (French Benvolent and Mutual Aid Society of Jefferson City), active in Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, from 1868 until its merger with Soci t  Franaise de Bienfaisance et d'Assistance Mutuelle de Nouvelle Orleans (French Benevolent and Mutual Aid Society of New Orleans) in 1900.

The original record is housed at special collections of Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, MSS 318, 1012.

The records are divide into two books and are documented chronologically. They have been transcribed in this fashion, as well, with book and page noted. This may aid in understanding some undated documents.

The vast majority of burials are documented as having taken place at the society's tomb in Lafayette Cemetery No. 2 (pictured). Instances in which a family tomb or alternative society tomb was utilized are noted on each record.

The entire book is written in French and has been translated by Emily Ford, MSHP, of Oak and Laurel Cemetery Preservation, LLC in March, 2016. Difficult or illegible handwriting is noted. French inscriptions, where difficult to translate, are presented in their original form.

Many surnames are given various spellings throughout this book, specifically the surnames Mouledous (Moledoux, Mouledoux, Moledous, etc.) and Fortassin (Fortassain, Fartassin, etc.). They have been presented as written in this book, although alternative surnames are often written in the notes section.
